

Mosquito
By Mary Sullivan

Mosquito whining in my ear,
I can't sleep when you are near!

You buzz and hover by my head,
You circle 'round and 'round my bed!

I pull the covers over my face
And hope you'll soon buzz off
Some place!

Butterfly Wings
By Aileen Fisher

How would it be on a day in June to open your eyes
in a dark cocoon,

And soften one end
and crawl outside,
and find you had wings
to open wide,

And find you could fly to a bush or tree or float on the air like a boat at sea.

How would it BE?

Jellyfish
by Christina Corona

A jellyfish is round and clear.
Its body feels like jelly.
A little fish that swims too near Might end up in its belly!

Jellyfish are pretty things,
But you should never touch one.
They have tentacles that sting,
And that would not be much fun.

Magic Carpet
by Shel Silverstein

You have a magic carpet
That will whiz you through the air,
To Spain or Maine or Africa
If you just tell it where.
So will you let it take you Where you've never been before,
Or will you buy some drapes to match
And use it on your floor?

If I had a magic carpet, I'd fly to . . .
