

Discussion Director

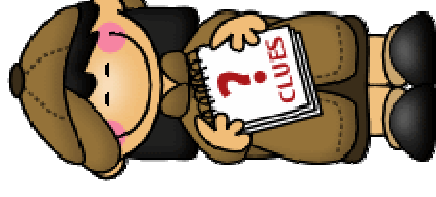

Literary Luminary

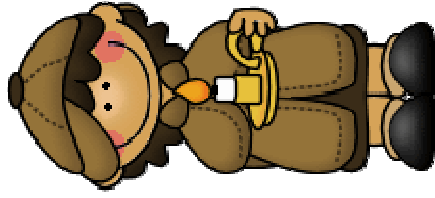

Character Captain

Super Summarizer

Artful Adventurer

Literary Luminary

1. Your job is to pick parts of the chapter or story that you think are important.
2. Write the event and page number.
3. Then write why you think this part is important.
4. Read the part to your group and discuss its importance at the meeting.

Discussion Director

1. Your job is to write down 5 teacher questions about the chapter or story.
2. Try to stay away from yes and no questions. Refer to "Asking Thick Questions" if you need help.
3. Write down the page number where you thought of your question.
4. The group will answer your questions and check their work.

Super Summarizer

1. Your job is to write down 5 sentences to summarize the chapter or story.
2. Your sentences should tell the most important things that happened in the chapter or story.
3. Read your summary to the group and they will decide whether things should be added or deleted.
4. Make revisions and rewrite if you want.

Character Captain

1. Your job is to analyze the character or characters.
2. List the characters. Then list their personality traits. Refer to "Character Traits" if you need help.
3. Write down examples from the chapter that support what you wrote.
4. Share your thoughts with the group at the meeting.

Artful Adventurer

1. Your job is to draw a picture that represents the chapter or book.
2. Your picture should be colorful, detailed, and as large as the space.
3. Then write at least 4 sentences describing the picture and how it helped you understand the story.
4. Share your picture and sentences with the group.