

STORY SEQUELS

- 1 Choose a book you've finished and think of a sequel.
- 2 Create a title for your sequel and write a brief summary of the story.

all about me

- 1 Imagine you are a character from your story. Write a short autobiography about yourself.
- 2 If you don't have all the information you need, use your imagination to fill in the details.

Glossaries

- 1 Look through your book and choose four or five words that are important.
- 2 Create a glossary for these words.
- 3 Be sure to put the words in alphabetical order and include their definitions.

Just Facts

- 1 Choose a nonfiction book you have not read. Copy and answer the following questions.
- 2 What do I already know about the topic? Why does the author want me to read this book? What do I think I will learn? What do I want to learn?

POET'S CORNER

- 1 Choose a book and write a poem about it.
- 2 Your poem can rhyme or not rhyme.
- 3 It can be serious or funny. Be creative and have fun.

SCENE IT

- 1 Choose a part of the book that you enjoyed and make a poster of the scene.
- 2 Underneath your picture, write a few sentences about what is happening in the scene.

CHANGE OF MIND

- 1 Pretend you can rewrite part of the story.
- 2 Change how a character reacts in a certain situation, and write a summary of how the rest of the story would change because of it.

FACT AND OPINION

- 1 Divide your paper into two sections labeled "I Learned" and "I Think."
- 2 Under "I Learned," write down 5 facts that you learned from your book.
- 3 Under "I Think," write a short summary of what you think about the topic.

THE AUTHOR

- 1 Think about the author of your book. What kinds of things do you imagine are important to the author?
- 2 What is he or she like? What does he or she like? What do they enjoy doing?
- 3 Write down reasons for your answers.

READER'S REVIEW

- 1 Without giving the ending away, write a review about the book and your overall opinion. Be sure to include facts from the book.
- 2 Would you recommend this book? Why or why not?

TIME LINES

- 1 Draw two time lines on your paper.
- 2 Label one "What Happened" and the other "What I felt."
- 3 On the 1st, write the important events from the story in order. On the 2nd, write how you felt as you read these events.

COMING SOON

- 1 Pretend that your book is now a movie and draw a poster advertising it.
- 2 Be sure to show the title and make the poster exciting so people will want to see the movie.
